

IEEE Intelligent Vehicles Symposium İstanbul, Turkey, June 13-15, 2007

Demo Day Announcement June 16, 2007, Saturday

IV'07

The 2007 IEEE Intelligent Vehicles Symposium (IV'07) which is an annual forum sponsored by the IEEE Intelligent Transportation Systems Society will take place in İstanbul during June 13-15, 2007. The Intelligent Vehicles Symposium gathers researchers from industry and universities to discuss research and applications for Intelligent Vehicles and Intelligent Infrastructures. Three days of the symposium will be allocated for technical presentations and one additional day (June 16, 2007) will be dedicated to live vehicle demonstrations. İstanbul connecting the two continents of Europe and Asia and being a cross-road of civilizations for many centuries is an ideal location for the Intelligent Vehicles Symposium and the live vehicle demonstrations. The symposium venue is the Hilton hotel in İstanbul, located at the center of the city. The planned live vehicle demonstration site is the Maslak campus of İstanbul Technical University. Shuttle bus service from the hotel will be provided on the day of the demo.

Demo Day Invitation

You are cordially invited to demonstrate your intelligent vehicle or intelligent vehicle concept on June 16, 2007 to the attendees of the IV'07 symposium. Interested demo day participants should contact the demo day chair Prof.Dr. Ali Göktaş (goktan@itu.edu.tr) for more information. Demo day participants will be able to keep their vehicles in the Automotive Technology Research and Development Center (OTAM, <http://www.otam.itu.edu.tr>) of İstanbul Technical University during the week of the symposium.

Pre-Registration for the Demo Day

Please fill in the information requested below and send it as soon as possible to the demo day chair Ali Göktaş (goktan@itu.edu.tr) and to the symposium secretariat (iv2007@itu.edu.tr) if you are interested in demonstrating your vehicle or concept.
