

BUILDING PRODUCTION SYSTEMS

Assignment-02

The assignment is optional. Students may prepare and submit one of the options stated below to increase their averages.

OPTION I

Read the novel given below and find out the parts that is related to industrial production. Write your thoughts and comments by considering the basics of industrial production. The novel is:

- Martin Eden by Jack London (a semi-autobiography of London)

Assignment is optional and must:

- include your own original thoughts and comments,
- be prepared as four (4) pages at least,
- be written A4 size paper with 1.5 line space,
- contain a cover page including the name of course, name and number of student, date,
- be submitted at the end of the lesson indicated in the schedule.

OPTION II

Literature and internet search for one of the rationalized or industrialized (prefabricated) building construction system. The papers may contain the systems applied by Turkish companies or applied in foreign countries. All types of the construction systems stated in the course are acceptable. The information obtained from different sources (internet, libraries, vendors of the systems etc.) will be combined and papers will be arranged in a systematical way by using headings and sub-headings.

Assignment must:

- include written information about construction systems,
- include schematic designs, pictures and graphs explaining the features of the system,
- be prepared as ten (10) pages at least,
- be written A4 size paper with 1.5 line space,
- contain a cover page including the name of course, name and number of student, date,
- be submitted in both paper and diskette format,
- be submitted at the end of the lesson indicated in the schedule.